

Eastborough Council School 'The Unreturning Brave'

DEWSBURY CONTRACTOR'S SON KILLED DEATH OF PTE. M. SCOTT.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scott, of 110. Rose Cottage, Bank Top, Earlsheaton, received have to inform you of the death of your son, 5172 Pte M. Scott, who died on the 14th, dur-ing the advance. He died a gallant, brave English soldier's death, fighting for his country, and was buried on the field of battle. I hope that in time it will be a consolation to you to feel that he died doing his duty for his country, and that H

Pte. ML.

Scott, Earlisheaton whilst his example re-

(killed). mains it is always something to feel a great pride in." Pte. M. Scott, who was 21 years of age, at-tended Eastborough Council School, and was a choir boy at St. Philip's, Leeds Road. He en-listed on the 2nd of March, 1916, and after train-ing, went out to Flanders the first week of the present year, his untimely and heroic death oc-curring on the 1th of March. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have another son training at Northamp-ten. tl be ton.

