

Highfield Congregational Church Men's Institute, Earlsheaton

'Lest we forget'

DEWSBURY SACRIFICES

forces.
Pte. Harold Brooke (24), K.O.Y.L.I., whose mother lives at 103, Town Street, Earlsheaton, is officially posted as missing from March 27th. He joined up in September, 1916, and in July the following year was gassed. In civil life he worked at the Jilling Ing Mills (Messrs. S. Lyles, Sons and Co.).

EARLSHEATON SOLDIER FALLS.
The information is now to hand confirming the death of Pte. H. Lee Ward, K.O.Y.L.I. (son of Mrs. Ward, 24, Commercial Street, Earlsheaton). The soldier, who was only 20 years of age, formerly attended the National Schools, Earlsheaton, and also had a connection with both the Church Institute and the Highfield Cricket Club. He joined the Army towards the latter end of 1915, and went out to France at Easter in the following year. Pte. Ward was reported missing as from July 1st, 1916.

Pte Harold Gaunt

Pte Harold Brook