He was killed when a shell fell on him on 11th August 1917 during the Battle of Passchendaele; he was taken to a Casualty Clearing Station near Proven but was either dead on arrival or later died of wounds. He was buried in Mendinghem Military Cemetery, West-Vlaanderen, Belgium. Arthur was awarded the British War Medal and the Victory Medal.

Mendinghem Military Cemetery is located 17 kms north-west of Ypres (Ieper) town centre on the road connecting Ieper to Poperinge and on to Oost-Cappel. In July 1916, the 46th (1st/1st Wessex) Casualty Clearing Station was opened at Proven and this site was chosen for its cemetery. The first burials took place in August 1916. In July 1917, four further clearing stations arrived at Proven in readiness for the forthcoming Allied offensive on this front and three of them, the 46th, 12th and 64th, stayed until 1918.
